Reasonable Questions

(What to ask about when searching for housing)

- What type of heat warms this apartment? _____
- Who is responsible for heating the apartment? _____
- What is the average monthly cost of heat during the winter months? _____
- What is the name of the most recent vendor who brought fuel to this location? _____
(You may wish to call the vendor to see what the winter cost was for that specific apartment location)
- Who is responsible for the electricity cost? _____
- What is the monthly average cost for electricity for this apartment? _____
(You may wish to call the vendor to see what the monthly cost is – NOTE: If there is an electric hot-water heater your bill could be much higher than usual.)
- Are there an appropriate amount of Smoke Detectors and Carbon Monoxide detectors in the apartment? _____
- Is the apartment insulated? _____ (Cold air coming from the outlets, light switches and around windows and doors may mean it is expensive to heat.)
- Has this building ever been treated for any kind of pests (like rodents, roaches, or bed bugs)? _____
- Is this a quiet building? _____
- Is there laundry hook ups in the apartment? _____ Laundry Room on site? _____
- (If no laundry hook-up, where is the nearest public laundry facility? _____)
- If you do not drive, note -- Where the closest public transportation is located? _____

- Note: The questions you ask, 'during the Landlord/Tenant interview' are important. How do you appear to your new potential landlord? How does he/she appear to you?*
