Description of referral:

This request was submitted by Westbrook resident Reggie Blaisdell.

To allow vehicles displaying a disabled license plate or hangtag to park in a time-limited parking space for twice the length of time permitted, similar to the City of Portland's ordinance (below):

§ 28-83. Parking of vehicles in parking spaces; meter parking for those with disabilities.

(c) Disabled person parking at meter. Any motor vehicle or motorcycle registered by a disabled person is exempt from any parking meter fare in a metered space when the vehicle properly displays special designating plates or a hangtag issued under state law, and may park a length of time that does not exceed twice the maximum time limit otherwise applicable in said space. (Ord. No. 183-97, 1-22-97; Ord. No. 162-11/12, 5-7-12)
